D. SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT – PART I

D.1. Family and Community Engagement Plan

Mr. Geary reviewed efforts in the area of community and family engagement. He pointed out the many members of the planning and steering committee that were here tonight, representing all areas of the town. Mr. Geary reviewed the mission of the Manchester Public Schools, honing in on the sentence, “All students will be prepared to be lifelong learners and contributing members of society.” The full presentation is available on the website.

Mr. Geary talked about coherence, with the hope that all students’ learning will look the same, regardless of what school they attend or neighborhood they live in.

He reviewed the elements of the family and community engagement plan, which is part of the District Improvement Plan aimed at district level coherence. Mr. Geary reviewed there are two goals in the area of culture and climate. The first goal is around students demonstrating personal responsibility, character, cultural understanding, and ethical behavior. The second goal, and the one we will be focusing on this evening, has to do with building relationships based on trust and understanding, with both parents and the community.

In March 2014, The Hartford Foundation for Public Giving reached out to Alliance Districts in the Hartford area, offering a $50,000 planning grant to plan work in an area that would be supported by the Foundation. This was a long process that lasted all summer, and the district submitted a grant proposal to Hartford Foundation for Public Giving and received the grant of just over $700,000 for year one of what is intended to be a 5 year commitment. Tonight will be a highlight of the work thus far.

Mr. Geary introduced Mr. Doug Edwards and reviewed that we are fortunate to have Mr. Edwards at the head of this endeavor to focus the group and keep everyone motivated and driven. Doug Edwards is the Planning Coordinator for the project and also Director of Real Dads Forever. Mr. Edwards recalled that back in 1995 Dr. Jim Kennedy asked him to be part of a community group to approve the new superintendent, Dr. Eddie Davis. In 1996, Dr. Davis asked him to lead a committee around creating a Parent Involvement Policy in Manchester.

Mr. Edwards stated that parents and schools can partner together for the success of their students. He reviewed that there are 35 people in the planning group, including a doctor, an attorney, students, PTA representatives, a School Resource Officer, a retired principal, a Headstart representative, and parents. They are all stakeholders in Manchester Public Schools. He noted the group looked at research in the area of parent and family engagement. They have conducted site visits, including one to New York City to look at a community school, where parents had a role in participating in the school. The school took advantage of the assets that parents can be. When parents are engaged with schools it is found that the students do better both socially and academically.
Mr. Geary noted this is a productive working group. He pointed out that most of the members of the steering committee were present tonight, as well as some members of the planning committee, underscoring their commitment to this work. Three goals were outlined: strengthening relationships; building capacity; and providing opportunities. The Board will be hearing from Latasha Turnquest, Director of the Family Resource Centers, as well as Nellie Crespo, the new ELL Coordinator, at the next board meeting.

Dr. Ratchford reviewed the three goals. The first, building and strengthening relationships: With parents as partners, trust is built and an open dialogue between the school and parents is created and this benefits the young people. In order to build relationships and partner we look at three groups – the first is teachers/administration/clerical staff; next are parents and community; third is students. If we don’t create the conditions to see this as a joint effort then it won’t work.

Mr. Geary reviewed the short term outcomes in these areas. In the area of strengthening relationships a new positions has been established which is a Director of Family and Community Engagement. Mr. Geary reviewed that we are preparing to name a person to this position shortly. This person will be doing significant work coordinating efforts around this goal, including looking at before and after school programming, summer programming, and outreach. This person will also ensure the community engagement plan is aligned to the District Improvement Plan and the Alliance Grant.

Communications is another area of work. The efficiency study in 2013 suggested we need to do a better job of communicating. We will be promoting the Family Resource Centers as an entry point and will hear more from Latasha Turnquest at our next meeting. All of our elementary schools have some element of Family Resource Center, with the 5 Title I schools having a full time FRC and non-Title schools having a part time FRC. More comprehensive programming will be offered through the FRCs with a list of potential partners, including ECHN, the Youth Service Bureau, Parks & Recreation, and the Office of Neighbors and Families. We want to explore parent leadership training models to help create parent leaders in the community.

We will also perform a needs assessment and take that data to plan systemic professional learning. We will work with school and community parent organizations to listen to what parents have to say about the schools. Our web and social media presence needs a significant amount of work in 2015. Mr. Geary reminded us that this is intended to be a 5 year commitment from the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving and the items discussed this evening are intended to be the first year and a half goals.
Ms. Cruz feels developing a plan to bring parents into schools is a huge challenge. Mr. Geary noted the hub of this plan is the Family Resource Centers, which will help in building capacity and partnering with parents and families. This is the first phase in this goal.

Ms. Cruz was interested in the site visits, including the New York City one where chess was being taught. Chess involves critical thinking and strategic moves. She wondered if there were other site visits besides New York. Mr. Edwards stated other visits included to the Hartford Family Centers, a program funded by the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving, as well as Manchester Family Development Center at Manchester Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Ratchford noted we will learn what works as the plan comes along. In addition to site visits, speakers were also brought in for the group to gain ideas and knowledge. Karen Mapp from Boston was brought in and noted that everything has to derive from the aspect of how it helps student achievement.

Ms. Cruz noted there is a national movement to engage fathers and she hopes the group considers that. Mr. Edwards has been a part of fatherhood work for 20 years and his goal is to get fathers to understand their value in the lives of their children.

Dr. Edwards stated that we have thought of the Family Resource Center as a service to parents without seeing that parents have tremendous assets that can benefit the schools too. Parent leadership programs he has been involved in are in place to help parents realize their own value and skills.

Mr. Leon stated in the past there has been a lot of talk, but it is incredible to see stuff actually getting done. He wonders how long the committee members will serve. Mr. Geary stated they can serve as long as they want and more will be added along the way.

Mr. Leon wondered how success will be measured. Mr. Geary reviewed that data collection will be done and that years 2-5 of the funding is contingent on the success in year 1. The Family Resource Centers already work on data collection.

Mr. Leon agreed that our technology has a way to go and noted that mobile apps would be helpful. Mr. Geary agreed that would be helpful.

D.2. Discussion on Superintendent’s Proposed Budget
Ms. Hagenow asked for clarification on capital repairs being unexpected. Mr. Geary reviewed that they have tried to separate repairs from improvements. Fixing a boiler that breaks down is a repair while a new boiler is an improvement. He noted they looked at the last three years spending in these categories and averaged the numbers. This is not for routine maintenance.

Ms. Hagenow asked about the Substance Abuse Counselor, wondering if this was an in-house person. Mr. Geary reviewed it is 1.5 positions covered in the Alliance Grant current and works with students at Illing, Bently, MRA, and MHS. Now instead of simply issuing out of school suspensions to students caught with drugs or high at school, alternatives could include an in-school suspension and counseling, either in a group setting or individually, depending upon the severity of the problem. Students can also self-refer to see the counselor.

Mr. Stafford asked why the Kelly Services figure was being raised 24% and why we don’t provide subs in-house instead of paying a service. Mr. Geary reviewed we did previously provide subs in-house, but had a poor fill rate. Kelly’s fill rate is about 95%. Currently we pay Kelly $107.03 a day and they in turn pay the subs $77 a day. Now, we will be paying Kelly $120 a day and the subs will receive $87.50 a day. Mr. Geary further explained that non-certified staff (paraeducators) need appropriate training. Currently we provide in-house staffing and that will be changing to Delta-T, a company similar to Kelly Educational. Mrs. Brooks added that when we provided in-house substitutes our fill rate was about 70%. In addition, we had to pay Worker’s Comp, unemployment taxes, and have a person on staff to call in the subs in the morning. Now, Kelly does all that for us, plus they provide their employees with health insurance and 401k plans as well as the ability to work every day in various towns instead of restricting them to work only in Manchester. The substitutes are trained and work in Hartford County. Lately the fill rate has started to decline and the increase in rate will help make Manchester more competitive with surrounding towns, putting us in the mid-range and attracting more subs.
